ORDER:

The Member Secretary, Gurukulam, A.P.,Hyd in his letter first and second read above has submitted proposal for bifurcation of upgraded Residential Junior Colleges into Residential Schools and Residential Junior Colleges, stating that there are (74) A.P. Tribal Welfare Residential Educational Institutions under the following types

- 5 Residential Junior Colleges (RJC) having Intermediate classes.
- 34 Upgraded Residential Junior Colleges (URJC) having classes from VI to Intermediate in case of general STs and III of Intermediate in case of PTG Institutions.
- 35 Residential Schools having classes from VI to X in case of General ST Schools and III to X in case of PTG schools.

He has further reported that during the conference of Principals held on 1-12-2003, while reviewing the results of Intermediate, discussions took place on measures to improve the quality and standards of Junior Colleges in Gurukulam and it was suggested to de-link school section from college section in upgraded Junior Colleges to avoid various academic and administrative problems.

The Board of Governors of Andhra Pradesh Tribal Welfare Educational Institutions Society in its meetings held on 17-8-2004 have resolved to recommend the above proposal to Government.
